

MA in Theology (Biblical Studies)

Cultivate that particular personal and communal engagement with Scripture that is at the heart of pastoral ministry and doctoral study.

Reading

Language

Context

Core Units:

Christian Holiness in Biblical Perspectives and Contextualising Scripture

Pathway Units:

Literature Review
Biblical Hermeneutics in East & Southeast
Asian Christianities
Advanced Greek Texts
Christian Holiness in Pauline Perspective
Advanced Hebrew
Independent Study

You will choose two core units plus any two MA units and write a dissertation in the area of Biblical Studies.

Accredited by

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester

180 Credits

Full Time Fees

£7,700 (UK), £11,700 (non UK)
This fee is split across years of part time study.

Modes of Study

Full Time, Part Time

Principal Lecturer

Dr Samuel Hildebrandt

Ideal for students with an undergraduate degree ready to deepen their knowledge and understanding of Scripture.

Ready to learn more?

www.nazarene.ac.uk

